Summary of the Activity/ Events

The session on first day conducted by Prof. Dr.Sachin Sawant titled "Career Aspirations" was really great and fruitful. Second day session handled by Prof H. M. Khare about "Safety Measures Of Electrical Appliances" was very innovative, informative and useful. The third day session conducted by Prof M. M.Patwardhan on "Internet Cyber security and Smart use of Mobile phone" was simply great. It was an eye opening experience. The fourth day session delivered by Prof. Rupali Deshpande titled "गणिताच्या अंतरंगात" was really helpful. On fifth day Prof. S. R.Bandewar threw a light on "Magic Square". Students enjoyed games with math puzzles. A articulate session on "Human Values" was conducted by Prof. Anita Joshi . She talked about core values which are the guiding principles of our life. These values are helpful to determine our behavior, and actions. Living in harmony with our core values creates a fruitful environment for happiness, satisfaction, peace of mind, and success. Because of harmony we are living authentically without confusion, anxiety, guilt, shame.

Dear DESH Team,
Greetings!!!

Akola Education Society's New English High School would like to thank faculty members of Department of Engineering Sciences and Humanities, Vishwakarma Institute of Technology, Pune 411037 for organizing an Intellectual Feast for our students. This workshop really made profound difference in our student's life as well as ignites their minds. The session on first day conducted by Prof. Sachin Sawant titled "Career Aspirations" was really great and fruitful. Second day session handled by Prof. H. M. Khare about "Safety Measures Of Electrical Appliances" was very innovative, informative and useful. The third day session conducted by Prof. M. M. Patwardhan on "Internet Cyber security and Smart use of Mobile phone" was simply great. It was an eye opening experience. The fourth day session delivered by Prof. Rupali Deshpande titled "गणिताच्या अंतरंगात" was really helpful. On fifth day Prof. S. R. Bandewar threw a light on "Magic Square". Students enjoyed games with math puzzles. A articulate session on "Human Values" was conducted by Prof. Anita Joshi. She talked about core values which are the guiding principles of our life. These values are helpful to determine our behaviour, and actions. Living in harmony with our core values creates a fruitful environment for happiness, satisfaction, peace of mind, and success. Because of harmony we are living authentically without confusion, anxiety, guilt, shame.

The workshop was very well organized. Most of our students mentioned that the workshop was very informative, enlightening and inspirable. Our student Yash Belekar replied, "This workshop is like turning point of my life." Payal Yadav remarked, "Through this workshop I have set my goal to become an army officer". I really thank you to our Principal Madhav Munshi sir for his constant support and encouragement.
